HIGHLIGHTS OF THE ROTARY MEETING May 29, 2014

OPENING: President Matt Schwechel called the meeting to order. Paul Johnsen led the club in prayer. Matt then led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Doug Smith had a birthday this week but he was not in attendance so we skipped the song. Each Rotarian was asked to contribute $2 to the birthday fund.

GREETERS REPORT: Three guests in addition to the students of the month were in attendance at today’s meeting. Craig Campbell, our guest speaker, and guests of Mike Mally and Jeff Millikin were in attendance.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH: Matt introduced Kayla, Julia, Gabrielle, and Vanja as the May Rotary Students of the Month.

EXCHANGE STUDENT REPORT: David spoke about his week, which included making plans with his parents for when he returns home. He will not be able to attend next week's meeting due to graduation practice. He will be back at Rotary on June 12th, which will be his final Rotary meeting before he goes home. David will be bringing a notebook to pass around so that people can write him a message if they so choose.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We still need golfers to sign up for this year's golf outing fundraiser. It will take place on June 24th. The flyers are out. To help the golf committee get an accurate head count, members are asked to please contact Brad Traver if you are planning to submit a team even if you do not have all your golfers signed up yet. The golf committee is still seeking raffle prizes and Rotarians are asked to contribute any size prize or cash donation.

Janean reported that the Wine and Dine golf outing is being planned for September 12th. More details about the event will be coming soon.

Please continue selling your Packer Raffle tickets. The drawing will be held on August 14th.

Dave Wolbrink reported that one of the schools in Guatemala that we donated computers to had been broken into and robbed. All the computers were lost, but Matt Zeman was able to ship 9 additional computers to the school to help them out. Matt Zeman asked that any Rotarians with access to old computers please consider donating them to the schools. Matt is able to wipe the computers clean and can take care of sending them down to Guatemala.

Melissa Richards announced that her son was helping out the United Way Resource Center on Thursday evening and could use some help unloading supplies for an hour or two. If any Rotarians are able to help out, please stop by the Resource Center around 5 PM.

Matt reported that the Best Scholarship committee awarded the Hartford Rotary Scholarship to Allison Burg who is planning to attend UW-Madison in the fall to study Biology. Allison was a student of the month earlier this year.

PROGRAM: Matt introduced Craig Campbell who is the former Grand Master of the Masons of Wisconsin. Craig told the membership about the history of the Mason's along with the projects they are currently working on.

Colleen Baus was the lucky winner of this week's birthday raffle.

In the Ace of Hearts Raffle, Mike Mally had a chance to win over $240 but he drew the Five of Diamonds instead.

Attendance: Ed Heck reported 10 members absent at today's meeting.

Sgt. At Arms Report: Paul Johnsen collected $30.00 in fines from the membership at today's meeting.
