HIGHLIGHTS OF THE ROTARY MEETING

August 7, 2014

OPENING: President Dave Groves called the meeting to order. Bob Stumpner led the club in prayer. Dave then led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Dave announced that it was Preposterous Packaging Day.

GREETERS REPORT: Irene Parker introduced our program speaker Attorney Barb Privatt.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH: No students present due to summer break.

EXCHANGE STUDENT REPORT:

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Fred said the club needed to sell another 300 tickets to meet Dave’s budget goal of $9000 for the Packer Raffle Fundraiser. Please continue selling your Packer Raffle tickets. The drawing will be held on August 14th.

The Grapes, Hops and Greens golf outing is scheduled for Friday, September 19th. The proceeds and donations will go to Project Second Start. The registration deadline is September 5th.

Loni Jaeger gave an update on Doug Smith. He is on some very strong medication and is very weak. She encouraged the club to send him get-well cards.

Loretta Klassen reported on the Creativity and Madness artistic experience she attended recently. She brought an outline of the conference and encouraged interested members to attend next year.

Author Sandra Sullivan will speak about the Packer Lombardi era at our August 14th meeting with the Packer Raffle drawing to follow.

Nick Place of the Manitowoc Police Department will present an education program on impaired drivers on August 21st.

On September 4th, Tom Hostad will speak about the Downtown Revitalization Project.

PROGRAM: Barb Privatt spoke about the Project Second Start Program. For approximately six years, she worked for the Public Defenders Office in Washington County. She now serves as a Public Defender in Fond du Lac. Project Second Start was founded in 2011. It was set up as a support group for the families of incarcerated prisoners. She provided statistics and highlighted the treatment and support systems available to former incarcerated people. You can help by volunteering your time at the Stop Heroin Rallies, donating new and used clothing, providing financial support, and purchasing t-shirts and other merchandise to promote the program.

Birthday Raffle – Tim Algiers was the lucky winner of this week's birthday raffle.

Ace of Hearts Raffle – Dave Groves had a chance to win $467.00 but he drew the Five of Clubs instead.

Attendance: Ron Schlitt reported 9 active members absent at today's meeting without prior makeup.

Sgt. At Arms Report: Tim Purman collected $22.00 in fines at today's meeting.
